

Prayers and Resources from The Power of Our Way Community

<http://powerofourway.blogs.com>

Each and every day, I receive prayer requests from people all around the world. Over the last few weeks, I've shared some of the prayers in written form and today I post a variety that you can draw from as needed!

Prayer of Gratitude

Thank you God for miracles! Thank you God for Prayers Answered. Thank you God for the amazing attention you give to details that often remain unseen, unknown and unacknowledged! Thank you God for the daily direction and guidance that comes when I am present. Thank you for the mystery that I have come to trust and the magic you deliver every day! I stand sacred in the knowing that all is unfolding in Divine perfection! Aho, Amen, Yippee!

Prayer for Expansion into Love

Creator, extract from me everything and anything that is contrary to love and compassion. Creator, extract from me everything and anything that is contrary to love and compassion. Creator, extract from me everything and anything that is contrary to love and compassion. Clear me of the judgments and underlying fears that distract and divert me from own Divine potential. Expand and anchor me with a deeper embodiment of compassion and love. Remove from me all that is contrary to me seeing through eyes of love, thinking love, speaking love and being love in each and every moment of this day, in all situations and circumstances. There is nothing and no one to judge, make wrong, or hold a grudge against when I am one in the mind and heart of God. Help me act on the understanding that we cannot fully heal absent of love, consistently, freely and without any opposition. I choose who I am in the world and free myself of any and all illusions and justifications to show up for God by being the Divine expression in each and every moment of this day.

Prayer for Moving Beyond Lack Consciousness and Negative Forecasting

Oh Great Spirit, expand my consciousness to one anchored in unyielding faith and positive expectancy. Wash me clean of all doubt and negative forecasting, for it disassociates me from the truth that I am, and have always been blessed. Help me know that when I am present to the Divinely orchestrated reality of today I am open to receive the miracles and blessings that are already on the way. Help me turn away from the worry and fear that I invite when I claim a future reality of doom and suffering, a reality that exists and is only created within my mind. Help me release the various ways I dance with drama and illusion and be present, fully present to the truth that today, all is perfect and all of my needs are being met. Remove from me the beliefs and perspectives whose only purposes are to ensure I remain in a consciousness of lack, reinforce false claims of misfortune and engage in declarations of “not enough.” Help me to see the blessings that “are,” the fortunes that have always been, and the blessings that are infinite in their continual supply. Help me choose to become a more welcoming place for receiving and a more devoted place for giving. Raise my thoughts to those that are aligned with truth and infinite potentiality.

Prayer to See the Good in the Seemingly “Ugly”

Creator, help us grow so deeply and completely in our faith that all that we see, even those things previously perceived as an injustices, as perfection unfolding. Help us move beyond past patterns of reacting in fear, judgment and blame and instead, with conscious, compassionate awareness, help us acknowledge that You are on the case, in every detail. Help us trust in the Divine Plan that is unfolding in all situations, and become more aware that if we observe the world around us through eyes of fear and judgment, we block the grace and growth that is Divinely orchestrated for the higher good. Give us the strength to see God in all situations and people and to demonstrate our faith by praying thanks, even for humanly perceived wrongdoings. Help us know that blame comes from a consciousness of victimization and that you work in ways that are mysterious, often mistaken, and always in service to all.

Morning Prayer to Begin the Day

Oh Creator I am humbled to awaken in this miraculous body once again today. May I honor each breath and step with an awareness that I, my body, and this existence are miracles I at times forget. May I stay present to opportunities to re-tune my eyes to beauty and compassion and may I activate the mind of God in each and every thought and action today. Give me the eyes to see, the ears to hear and the heart to feel the Divine nature in all moments and in all people. Help me to ground the essence of who I am in every choice and moment today. I surrender to your will in each and every moment and I am grateful! Ho Mitakuye Oyasin!

Prayer for Daily Direction and Divine Guidance

What is it that wishes to be created through me today? How am I to serve? How God, do you wish to presence yourself through me? What wishes to be birthed in my awareness and what is mine to do, be and see?

Prayer for Strength to Let Go or Hold On

There is strength in letting go and there is strength in holding on. They are different types of strength, available to us to draw upon when in need. At times we need strength to let someone go, or to release our own expectations and attachments. Sometimes we need strength and faith to hold on. Before praying for strength, ask Creator first to help you understand what kind of strength is needed so you know which kind to ask for.

Creator, please tell me, in a clear language of my understanding, a symbol I will recognize, or a thought I will heed, the strength I need at this time. What is mine to do?

Prayer of Declaration – a Divine Covenant

Creator, I declare that am ready to receive the dream you have for my life and I commit to unwrapping the many gifts you will gift me along the way. I will be open to the learning and wisdom that comes from perceived failure and mistakes. I will be present to the many you speak to me, nudge me, and at times, provoke me to move towards a higher vision for my life and all you have planned for it.

I know that when I am present to receiving this level of Divine Communication, you will speak to me through my own resonance and curiosity, through beauty and inspiration, through intuition and joy, and through synchronicity and trust on Divine emergence...

I know that any sense of discontentment is merely a sign of my SOUL UNEXPRESSED, and I take 100% responsibility for my own happiness and fulfillment. I surrender my human desires for a commitment to serve the greatest good by being a model for what is possible when I tune into and turn towards a higher will for each and every moment of each and every day. Your will, God, is what I wish to align with.

I commit to practicing a perpetual state of trust in You, Creator, in both my being and doing moments. I open to RESONANCE and choose to be ruled by a GOVERNANCE of Love, as opposed to Fear.

I ask for the strength to align my will with Your will for my life and I surrender, completely, to a vision of extraordinary measure and contribution in alignment with my reasons for existence. I choose thoughts and perceptions that are soulful and abundant. I am the flow and surrender any and all resistance to being the flow in each and every moment. I ask for the wisdom to seek the gifts that have been tucked away in a location that is so close that I may not search the very places they are hidden.

I pray to co-create an expansive reality and open to a vision of what WISHES to be made manifest in my life, letting go of my attachments to what I think will bring me the greatest joy and fulfillment and turning all over to you and your infinite intelligence. I ask for the wisdom to know what is mine to do and be from the mind of God.

I ask to transcend the conditioned focus on human desire and lack to consciously creating and ALLOWING from an embodied place of spiritual resonance, alignment, and expansion...I see myself continuously becoming a vibrational and energetic match for what is ready, and asking to emerge in my life and I cultivate a welcoming place for the manifestation of my life purpose, in its next phase of expression.
